JULIET IZON & MICHAEL LEWIN

July 13, 2013 in New York, New York

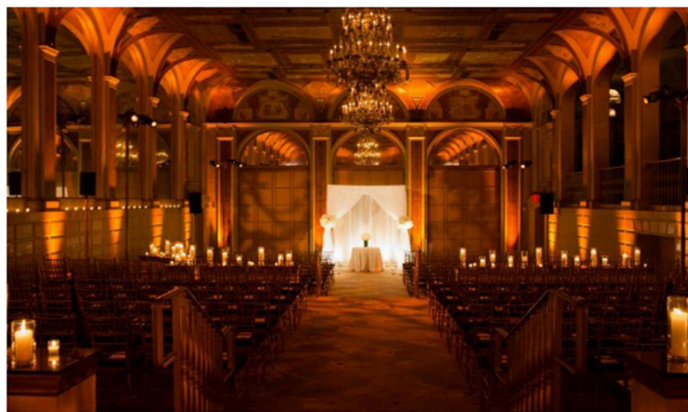

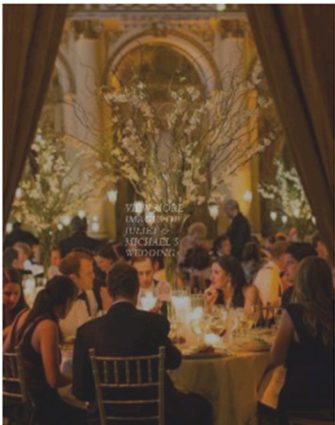

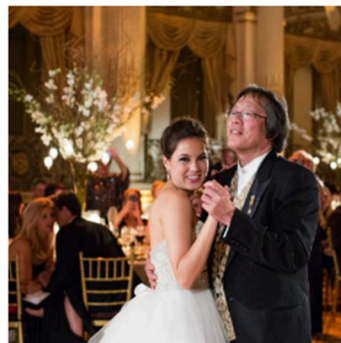

During her freshman year in high school back in 2000, Juliet Izon met Michael Lewin, a junior, at Sidwell Friends School in Washington, D.C. It was a simple, platonic relationship at that point, and the two students lost touch for a while—that is, until eight years later. Unbeknownst to each other, they were both living in New York City and reconnected via Facebook. After reuniting over cocktails, the two soon became inseparable.

About three years later, Juliet and Mike were about to move into a new home in Greenwich Village. During a beautiful October day, Mike asked if they could take a walk by their new building; and once they were standing outside their new bedroom window, he got down on one knee and proposed. "He had the ring on him all day and I never knew," says Juliet. "Every time I look outside my bedroom window, it brings a smile to my face."
